Borrowing/Lending

Our library has holds that were placed yesterday that are still not showing on patron records. Is there a hold up somewhere?

It’s possible that there was a large batch of cataloging records or other updates that caused the delay. All transactions go through one queue and the traffic is not prioritized. So if someone in cataloging is sending through a large number of records, this can delay processing of circulation transactions.

Unique solution ID: #1005
Author: Rose Nelson
Last update: 2017-08-24 19:09