Paging and Holds

The courier code for a particular library is not printing on the paging slip that I send out to this library. How can I get it to display on the paging slip?

This is a setting controlled by the borrowing library. The borrowing library will need to add this courier code to the branches name display in the branches table.