Cataloging

Is there a way to see whose master record Prospector is using?

Yes, however this is only available through the telnet (text based) version of Prospector. If you would like access to the telnet version, contact help@coalliance.org to get a login. Attached are screen shots that show how to identify the master record holder in the text based catalog: